

BECAUSE

Wood has advanced to $3 a half cord already, I believe now is the time to lay in a supply or 'phone order for delivery. I have very nice large block Oak and Pine that I have been out in the country and selected. I have been in the business over twelve years. I have learned to buy this kind because it suits my customers. I also have the nicest Dry Oak and Pine slabs I ever sold. It is cheapest for kindling and cooking. Try me because I am the wood man in Richmond.

TO CONSOLIDATE BRUTON SCHOOLS

It Is Planned to Build New Six-Room Building in Central Locality.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WILLIAMSBURG, Va., November 13.—Bruton District, York county, is planning to establish central school and to erect a six-room building, to cost about $4,000. Three rooms are to be completed and a principal and two assistants employed the first session. This central school will close five district schools, which are to be disbanded to the new school. An enthusiastic meeting of the patrons was held recently at Magruder, and addresses were made by District Examiner Russell and Division Superintendent J. S. Eastman. Two sites are offered free and there is considerable rivalry over the location. Another meeting will be held at Magruder next Monday, when it is thought all the details will be settled.

RAILROAD PLANS EXTENSION.
Asheville and East Tennessee Will Extend Line to Forks of Ivy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHEVILLE, N. C., November 13.—That the Asheville and East Tennessee Railroad will in the near future extend its line to the Forks of Ivy, a point over seven miles beyond its present terminus at Weaverville, was the announcement made yesterday. The survey is practically complete, and much of the right of way has already been secured. It is probable that the contract will be let this winter, and actual work begun in the early spring. This announcement is taken to mean that the company has not abandoned its purpose to build on to Huntsville, where it will connect Asheville with the recently completed Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railroad. It was the original plan to build the road in sections, the Asheville-Weaverville line, which was opened for traffic last spring, being the first section. Passenger and express service on convenient schedule will be inaugurated between Asheville and the Forks of Ivy when the connecting road is complete. This point is a thickly settled neighborhood and might be called the gateway to Yancey county. Within a radius of three miles are the towns of Mars Hill, Barnardville and Democrat.

Rockbridge Teachers.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BUFFALO, Va., November 13.—On Monday afternoon the teachers of Natural Bridge District met in Fancy Hill Schoolhouse and organized the Natural Bridge Teachers' Association, of Rockbridge county, for the purpose of increased efficiency and better work. A large percentage of the teachers were present, and the meeting was a complete success. Mr. Effinger and Mr. Reese, a district trustee, were present, and the former gave an interesting and impressive address. The following officers were selected: Miss Grace Stark, president; Mr. Cummins, vice-president; Miss Charlotte Merrell, secretary and treasurer. An auditing committee and a committee on programs were appointed by the president. A program was arranged for the next meeting, to be held in the Fancy Hill Schoolhouse the first Saturday in December, at 2 P. M. The following topics were selected for discussion: "Supplementary Reading," Miss Hill and Miss A. Fry; "Religion in the Home," Miss Long and Miss Denny; "Treatment of Defective Pupils," Miss Morse and Miss Merrell. The program promises to be an interesting and instructive one, and it is hoped that every teacher in the district will make an earnest effort to be present and to help make the meeting a great success.

Site for Broom Factory.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NEW CHURCH, Va., November 13.—Finding that statistics show that a broom factory has never been located in the United States, and that there is not such a factory between Wilmington and Cape Charles, several Georgetown business men are making an effort to purchase a factory site in Georgetown for that purpose.

Be at Warwick Place, November 20, at 10:30 A. M. Big time for all who attend the grand auction sale of 130 horse class suburban residence lots. Sold on very easy terms.
